

Bartering

The Agora of Smyrna's underground archways were home to many traders. They quickly realized that simple trades, say a cow for a sheep, weren't going to keep up with an increasingly complex economy.

Simple Trades
Sore or throbbing, like old joints (6)		2
Tyson or Ali (5)	%	P	%
Like many gowns or showers (6)	Ċ C	7
Covered with a layer of dried something (9)	A	P	A
Acted as a liaison (10)	W		\
Weasel-like mammals found in northern forests (7)	OP		OP	18
Increasingly Complex T	rades	S d
	%		W
	%
	Ċ.		A
	ĆŢŢ
	W	2
	d	 	%
	%		₩%

Yours to Barter

- Somewhat puzzled or lost in thought (7)
- Loose-fitting shirts for women (7)
- Inward angle, or a nearby "-ville" (6)
- Spaghetti strap undershirts (9)
- Variety of salmon (4)
- Reject, as a judge might a motion (4)
- Passed on by your parents (7)

- More difficult (6)
- Starbucks lovers or a bathroom on the right, for example (10)
- Edible cacti common in Mexican cuisine (7)
- Pack like sardines or a busy subway car (9)
- A cooler name for social engineering (8)
- What Pearls come Before (5)
- Like some blankets or vests (8)

Shopping List

- ☐ Gathering info verbally
- ☐ Like a proud parent
- □Lots and lots
- □A hat
- □ Extremely violent
- ☐ Small appetizers
- ☐ A piece of furniture
- □Doctrine
- □Give
- □ Carrying stuff

- □Unbranded
- ☐ A thief
- ☐ Woven together
- ☐ Symbols or branding
- □A small mammal
- ☐ Reads out loud
- ☐ Caused passengers to be bumped from a flight
- ☐ Gathering info physically
- ☐ Stop progress
- ☐Worked the streets

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20